NO TAX FOR BYRD'S MILL

INCREASED CONSUMPTION WILL TAKE CARE OF BOND ISSUE.

GOOD PROFIT IN SIGHT

Some Facts and Figures Concerning the Proposed Water Works Extension.

When the question of a bond issue arises the first thought of the tax payers is about how much it will likely add to their taxes. The proposition to vote $150,000 for the Byrd's Mill extension of the waterworks has given rise to considerable speculation along this line, some expecting from the size of the project that it will place a heavy burden on the shoulders of the citizens of Ada. Desiring more light on this very question the News man called on Tom Hope this morning, knowing that he has been figuring closely on it. At present the city is consuming about 350,000 gallons per day. With sewer connections and the increased consumption from other sources the amount used daily by the city of Ada would be not less than 500,000 per day. At present the highest rate collected for water service is 50c per 1000 gallons. To larger consumers of course it is some less. However, the fact remains that the system at present lacks something like $4,000 of meeting its expenses. With the increased consumption the rate can be cut in half and still be made to yield a revenue of $2,000 per month. That is $24,000 per year. Now for a glance at the other side of the ledger. The salary of a water commissioner will not exceed $1,000 per year. It will cost another $500 for a man to keep an eye on the plant at the spring. Add

CHAMP CLARK ANNOUNCES PLANS

Washington, Dec. 16.—Representative Champ Clark gave out a statement tonight fully outlining his platform as the prospective Speaker of the democratic house of representatives in the next congress. He proclaims himself in favor of the appointment of committees of the house by a committee rather than by the speaker, and he states his belief that the tariff should be revised, scheduled by schedule, rather than in one single bill. Those two subjects, says Mr. Clark, are the ones upon which he has been continually importuned to make some statement.

The democratic members of the house sent out a call today for a caucus Jan. 19 of the democratic members of the next house. Mr. Clark's statement is both an explanation of the call for that caucus and a declaration of his own platform as the probable speaker of the house.

The caucus will select a ways and means committee and a rules committee, somewhat larger than the present committees. Mr. Clark believes one of these committees should be empowered to select the other committees of the house.

Prefers Schedule Revision.

"There are two theories of tariff revision," says Mr. Clark in his statement, "revision by one general bill and revision by separate bills for separate schedules. This is a matter not of principle, but of method."

"Individually, I prefer the scheme of separate bills for separate schedules, taking the schedules with the most obnoxious features of the tariff, perhaps in certain cases having separate bills for particular items."

The statement proceeds to say that whatever method is decided upon, full hearing as comprehensive as that which preceded the framing of the Payne-Aldrich bill will be had by the new Ways and Means Committee.

"The assumption growing out of ignorance in certain quarters," says Mr. Clark, "that President Taft or Senator Cummins or any other republican has discovered something new in tariff revision by separate schedules is preposterous. As far back as the Fifty-Second Congress Mr. Springer introduced separate bills for separate schedules and even for particular items, which were derisively designated 'Springer's popgun bills' by republican speakers and writers; and several years before Judge Springer was chairman of the committee on ways and means, Mr. McKenzie of Kentucky achieved both great renown and the sobriquet of 'Quinine Jim' by securing the passage of a bill putting quinine on the free list and touching no other item whatsoever in any tariff schedules."

sage of a bill putting quinine on the free list and touching no other item whatsoever in any tariff schedules."

Members-Elect to Attend Caucuses.

Mr. Clark declares he is heartily in favor of inviting to the caucus all of the democratic members-elect. He goes on to say that his efforts for the last two years have been directed largely to the unification of the democrats in the house, and for that reason the members-elect should be given every opportunity, if that unification is to be maintained to express their choice in the naming the members of committee.

Two questions, Mr. Clark says, interest the country—how the democrats will select committees and what the party will do with the tariff. This last question has been answered, and reverting to the first, the statement says:

"As to the mode of selecting the committees in the event of my own election to the speakership, I would not care the snap of my finger to exercise the power of appointing them. I have stated that to every democratic member who cared to inquire my opinion. The exercise of that power would undoubtedly have certain unpleasant features."

Of the two plans for the election of committees by the democratic caucus or directly by the house itself, Mr. Clark favors the last named. This is based on the fact that in the debatable states the independent voters appear to favor it, and the future speaker of the house frankly acknowledges that it may be adopted because of the influence it would have in returning a democratic president and congress in 1912.

GOVERNOR GRANTS PAROLE TO TWO

Today Ed Franks, who has served two months of a sentence of six months on conviction for giving whiskey to a minor, received a parole conditioned on his paying his fine of $50 and all costs.

Jim Broadus, convicted at Allen of violating the prohibition law, was also paroled.

Murdered Man Has Relatives Here.
It develops that Clint McCrery, the man who was found murdered near Durant a few days ago, is a brother to Mrs. S. B. Dameron, wife of the pastor of the Nazarene church of Ada. Mr. Dameron was in the News office this afternoon and after reading the full account of the tragedy in the Durant paper, stated that there could be no doubt about his being the man.

STATE OFFICERS WILL MOVE TO OKLAHOMA CITY

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 18.—The action of the special session of the legislature locating the capital in Oklahoma City, is to be recognized by the state officials. Following a conference Saturday of members of the supreme court, the criminal court of appeals, the board of affairs and Attorney General West, after telephonic communication with Governor Haskell, it was decided to move the state offices to Oklahoma City immediately upon the signing of the bill by the governor.

To this end J. Royal Allen, chairman of the state board of affairs, was delegated to go to Oklahoma City and arrange for quarters for the various state officials. Mr. Allen leaves here Monday.

All official business of the state will be transacted from Oklahoma City as the result of the action of the legislature until such time as the supreme court shall pass upon the legality of the bill, which permanently located the capital.

This means that the supreme court will sit in Oklahoma City to hear and render a decision on the legality of the capitol bill.

The decision of these high officials of the state to remove immediately to Oklahoma City is taken to mean that every state official will be compelled to transact the official business of the state from the place selected by the legislature as the capital of Oklahoma.

The fact that Mr. Allen leaves Monday for Oklahoma City to arrange for quarters for the supreme court, the board of affairs, the criminal court of appeals, and the attorney general's office, is taken to mean that the governor will sign the bill immediately.

ROFF COTTON OIL CO. GETS NEW TRIAL

At the last term of district court Beeler & Hybarger obtained a judgment for $3,650 against the Roff Cotton Oil Co., for damages alleged to have been suffered by plaintiffs as a result of bad feed given their cattle that were being fattened at the Roff mill. Defendants moved for a new trial and until 2:30 this afternoon the attorneys argued the motion pro and con. The defense alleged an error in the charge of the court to the jury. After hearing all the argument Judge Rainey granted the motion, and a new trial will be had.

Plans Boll Weevil Fight.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 16.—W. P. Pierce of Dallas, federal entomologist, was here Thursday to confer with Secretary F. W. Gist of the state board of agriculture in regard to a campaign of co-operation by the state and federal departments against the boll weevil. The government report shows that a large part of Oklahoma was redeemed from the pest during the last year. The chart puts Coal, Johnston, Pontotoc, Garvin, Seminole, Okfuskee and Okmulgee counties clear of the weevil and portions of Carter, Murray, Marshall, Atoka, Pittsburg, Hughes and McIntosh above the line of infected territory. The state board does not believe that the weevil has done any material damage in Oklahoma this year, but will co-operate heartily with the federal authorities. Every farmer finding insects on his cotton this year will be requested to send them to the state board, who will turn them over to Professor Sanborn state entomologist, for examination and classification.

to that $4,000 for all other expenses that could possibly arise, the total is $5,500 per year, leaving a profit of $18,500 per year. Deduct interest and sinking fund charges $13,500, the city is left with a net profit of $5,000. Granting that from some unforeseen cause these expenses are more than the figures indicate, the city still has a margin of $5,000 upon which to play and still come out even. That in itself is better than having to collect $4,000 per year to meet a deficit as is done at present. Mr. Hope says that the issue will be made too late for the tax levy of 1911 and before the time comes for the next levy the system will be paying so well that the people will not only be getting their water at half the present rate but will not have another additional tax placed upon them. These facts are worthy of serious consideration by the voters.

Plain Old John.

Jno. Crawford says he has noticed that when other members of the legislature return home their papers refer to them in glowing terms as "The Honorable So-and-So," but that when he comes back from the conflict the Ada News just puts it plain old John. Well, it's the plain people who do the work and get what they go after, isn't it?

LEND A HELPING HAND.

As will be seen from the announcement in another column there will be a union Christmas tree at the city hall Monday night. The News desires to give this movement its heartiest support. There are some whom Santa Claus may overlook on his first round, and this tree will give these some cause to remember the day. During the year most of us are busy with our own affairs and think little about the troubles of others. Most of us are willing enough to lend a helping hand when our attention is called to the needs of others, but are too busy. Giving brings joy both to the giver and to the receiver. It affords more genuine satisfaction to see the joy a gift brings to a little one than to receive a valuable present ourselves.
 This Christmas tree is not in the nature of charity, but just to afford all of us an opportunity to remember others. Lend your assistance and give some one a brighter Christmas than they would otherwise have.

A certain amount of ancient superstition and customs cling to us even in this modern time. The manner of observing Christmas is a case in point. The ancient Romans observed the festival of Saturn at about that date, during which celebration the people gave themselves over to all kinds of revelry and dissipation.
 When Rome fell and the half barbarous tribes that overran the civilized world were converted to Christianity their new religion was a strange intermixture of their old heathenish practices and the new teachings. They continued to observe both the old feast days and the new. When the church finally decreed that December 25 should be observed as the anniversary of the birth of Christ, these barbarians mixed its observance very badly with the celebration of the saturnalia a custom to which we cling to this good day.

The Francis Wigwam came out last week in a fancy Christmas dress. Perhaps Editor Clark is expecting to be well remembered by old Santa Claus.

ANOTHER BISHOP FOR OKLA- HOMA.

Yesterday evening Bishop Brooke, of the Episcopal diocese of Oklahoma, preached at the Presbyterian church and this morning held communion services. He stated that this will probably be his last official visit to Ada. Owing to the increased demands of the work in this state another missionary bishop, Rev.
 Thurston of Minnesota, has been assigned the eastern half of the state, and about February 1 he will assume his duties. Bishop Brooke has made himself quite popular here and we regret that Ada will no longer be under his jurisdiction.

Buffalo Bill Aids an Old Enemy.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 17.—Cloudy Face, an aged Arapahoe Indian chief, who once came near getting Buffalo Bill Cody's scalp, was Saturday helped by the former Indian fighter, when he found the old warrior hungry, sick and destitute at the union depot in this city. After giving the old fellow a square meal, Colonel Cody purchased for him a ticket back to the reservation and started him homeward to Wyoming. Cloudy Face had been without food for so long that he was unable to tell Cody how he reached Omaha.

Cloudy Face was once one of the most wily and intrepid foes of the whites, and for years there was sworn enmity between him and Colonel Cody. He came nearer than any other Indian ever did to getting Buffalo Bill's scalp.

"In the old days I had many a hard fight with this old man and his band," said Colonel Cody. "At one time he headed a coalition of Arapa-hoes, Shoshones, Sioux, Cheyennes and other tribes having for its object the annihilation of the whites.

"They were on the warpath and a party of us attempted to overtake them. Cloudy Face and his band made a clever movement during the night and got us surrounded. I hardly know how we managed to get out of that trap, but eight of our party and about fifteen Indians were killed before we got clear. It was the closest call I ever had. They chased us several days before we eluded them."

Before separating from Colonel Cody, Cloudy Face insisted on shaking hands with him, calling him "brother," and declared that they were now friends forever.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE WINDING UP AFFAIRS

Oklahoma City, Dec. 18.—The finance committee and the campaign committee of the democratic state organization, will wind up its affairs with a meeting of the entire committee membership Monday, in Oklahoma City. The meeting is scheduled for 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Lee-Huckins hotel. At that time Treasurer J. D. Lankford of Atoka, and Secretary W. R. Samuel of Choteau, will make reports of the money collected and expended by the committee in their recent campaign, previous to the general election of November 8.

John R. Williams, chairman of the committee, will also make an oral report of the organizations' work.

The campaign committee is composed of some fifteen prominent democrats over the state, and the finance committee is composed of a like number.

These committees have had absolute control of the democratic state campaign for some five months and credit is given the men who form the organization, and the men at the head of it, for the victory of the democratic state ticket.

In reference to his report to Monday's meeting Mr. Samuel said Sunday:

"We hope to have the report in shape so that it will show concisely for just what we have used the money collected. The campaign has been inexpensive, and the report will show it to be such."

With Monday's meeting the committee will disband and headquarters, which have been maintained at the Lee-Huckins, will be broken up.

A WOMAN CAUSED IT.

Three Brothers Fight to the Death for Her Love.

Hopewell, Ala., Dec. 17.—Three Benefield brothers fought to their death here Friday night over Richard Benefield's wife. They agreed that each should arm himself with a butcher knife and that they would go into a room and fight it out, the survivor to have the woman. The two brothers had been paying her some attention which caused the trouble.

The men went into a dark room, and the hand-to-hand struggle was on. Each cut and slashed as though mad, hoping that he would be the man to claim the woman who was awaiting the return of the victor.
 Half-blinded with blood from cuts and slashes across their faces and weakened in body from the loss of blood the three men staggered and fought. Not once did the woman seek to interfere, despite the sound of the death groans of the men while they thrust, stabbed and cut each other.

She still awaited the return of the victor. If her husband, well and good. In another, she had agreed to become that man's wife when the bond of marriage to her husband had been severed by some stroke of a knife in the darkness of the room.

They fought on and on. Neither knew the word "quarter!" At last the death struggle was over and no further sounds came from the room except a few moans and then these ceased. Saturday morning the door was broken in and the bodies of the three men were found lying in the corners of the room. Their faces were slashed until they were unrecognizable and the floor was sodden with blood.

Senator Roddie's Vote.

Oklahoma City, Dec. 17.—Senator Roddie of Ada had printed in the journal the following reasons for his vote in favor of passage of the house bill locating the state capitol in Oklahoma City and providing for erection of a building:

"I vote 'yes' on this bill for the reason that I am convinced by the action of the majority of this body that we must accept this proposition and pass this bill or get no legislation on this subject. It is with a great deal of regret that I am forced to accept for my constituency $1,000,000 for a capital with a guarantee of only $100,- 000 to make it good, when we had the opportunity to accept $1,600,000 with a guarantee of $600,000 to make it good. I feel that it is better to sacrifice the $700,000 than to have the people get nothing. I also feel assured that before any contract is signed that the rights and interests of the state will be better protected than they are under this bill. Therefore I accept a half loaf since I am forced to by the majority of this body rather than have nothing."

Shorty Lowery Acquitted.

This afternoon the case of "Shorty" Lowery charged with selling liquor, was tried in the city court. After hearing all the evidence on both sides Judge Powers acquitted the defendant.

DRINKING PREACHER IS GIVEN SEVERE REBUKE

Judge Latshaw Promises to Send Rev. A. B. Smith to Penitentiary
 If He Doesn't Reform.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 17.—In allowing dismissal of charges against the Rev. A. B. Smith of Oklahoma, an Episcopal clergyman, who has been several weeks in the county jail charged with passing worthless checks, Judge Ralph S. Latshaw gave Smith the worst grilling a prisoner has had in the criminal court in many a day. Smith passed checks aggregating $220 and the amount has been made good. He is to return to Oklahoma. He attributes his actions to drink.

For several weeks friends have been settling Smith's affairs so that he might be released. It was intended to keep him in jail for some time so that he might overcome his craving for whisky.

"You are the worst kind of hypocrite, Smith," said Judge Latshaw in delivering a rebuke to the clergyman. "You, who should have shown men how to live, became a disgrace to the community and an object of derision to the public. I have here letters from your wife pleading for you, but that is a woman's way. If she seven lives she would give six to get her husband out of trouble."

Smith begged to be allowed to sit down during the court's talk of twenty minutes. He was trembling and pale as he sank into a chair.

"If you are found in Kansas City again in a saloon, or a pool hall, or in any place where men of your profession should not be," concluded the court, "all these eight charges against you will be revived and juries will send you to the penitentiary for so long a time that people will forget you existed before your appear from behind prison walls."

Then Smith was led from the court room. He is part Indian.

Farmer Killed Near Guthrie.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 17.—Andrew Russell, a wealthy stock raiser and farmer, residing two miles south of this city, was shot and instantly killed by an unknown assassin shortly after eight o'clock this evening.

Russell and his family had just finished their evening meal and returned to the living room when there came a call for him. Walking to the door he passed into the yard. A few minutes later members of the family were startled by four shots. They rushed to the door to be met by the father who staggered into the room and fell dead. The assassin was heard to ride away by those who went to the door but up to a late hour officers had made no arrests. Members of the family state that they do not know of any trouble which may have been the cause of the murder.

Back for the Holidays.

Special Officer Ed Brents arrived last night from northern Minnesota where he has been smashing saloons on Indian reservations and will remain at home until after the holidays. It did not look much like holiday for him when we met him this morning, he had three big bundles of work under his arm that his superiors had fired down here for him to fix up while enjoying himself at home. He says he has been doing business lately, having put over 400 saloons out of business during the month of November.

Waste Energy.

In every community there are found some people who will take you by the coat lapel and tell you confidentially that "things are going to the dogs;" that they've been there "for years and never saw it so bad before." We should advise these people they're incurable and would look for a hole in a gold dollar. There are others equally inimical to the best interests of the community, those whose enthusiasm blinds their judgment to real values and are about as serviceable as a burnt out fuse.—Shawnee News.

Patrolmen do Good Night's Work.

Saturday night Patrolmen Goyne and Brady rounded up a total of thirteen on different charges, principally drunks and gaming. Pretty fair night's work.

Big Land Deal Made.

Ardmore, Ok., Dec. 17.—J. S. Mullen, the largest individual land owner in Oklahoma, returned today from Chicago and announced that he had purchased from Chicago people several thousand acres of land in Southern Oklahoma. The purchase price was $256,000 and is the biggest land sale ever made in Oklahoma.

Appreciation to Mr. Fowler

The Methodist ladies desire to thank Mr. O. E. Fowler for kindly donating the proceeds from all drinks sold at his drug store Saturday. Owing to the lack of time for advertising the sale and the very busy season with the ladies, Mr. Fowler kindly proposed to the ladies that some time after the holidays, he would give them another day, when he would furnish some special cream, etc. 218-11
